

Practice Quiz #5

Nomen: Answer Key

Datum: _____

Section 1: Grammar

1. Please decline the following nouns:

Ex. donum, -i, n. - gift

Case	Singular	Plural
Nominative	donu donum	dona
Genitive	doni	donorum
Dative	dono	donis
Accusative	donum	dona
Ablative	dono	donis

Ex. corpus, corporis, n. - body

Case	Singular	Plural
Nominative	corpus	corpora
Genitive	corporis	corporum
Dative	corpori	corporibus
Accusative	corpus	corpora
Ablative	corpore	corporibus

2. Please give the two ways that you can translate a genitive in English:

- of + noun
- noun's

Section 2: Vocabulary

Please translate the following Latin forms into English:

1. cur: why?
2. hortus, -i, m.: garden
3. facio, facere: to make, do

4. statim: at once

5. pono, ponere: to put/place

Please translate the following English words into Latin:

6. through: per + accusative (give the case, too!)

7. with: cum + ablative (give the case, too!)

8. to say: dico, dicere

9. that, he/she/it: ille, illa, illud

10. to proceed: procedo, procedere

11. to respond: respondeo, respondere

Section 3: Translation

Please underline the genitive(s) in each sentence, and then translate into idiomatic English:

1. omnes milites mortem imperatoris lugent.

All the soldiers mourn the death of the general.

2. colonus clamores feminarum audire non potest, quod in agro est.

The farmer is not able to hear the shouts of the women, because he is in the field.

3. magister tabulas puerorum spectat et non laetus est; pueri saepe errata in tabulis scribunt.

*The Teacher watches the tablets of the boys and is not happy;
The boys often write errors on the tablets.*